Re: Appointment of House members to the Permanent Fund Working Group

Today, Speaker of the House Bryce Edgmon (I-Dillingham) appointed the following four House members to the newly established House-Senate Working Group on the future use of the Permanent Fund created by the passage of House Concurrent Resolution 101. Representative Jennifer Johnston (R-Anchorage) was appointed as Chair and will be joined by Rep. Adam Wool (D-Fairbanks), Rep. Jonathan Kreiss-Tomkins (D-Sitka), and Rep. Kelly Merrick (R-Eagle River).

The members join Senate Chair Click Bishop (R-Fairbanks), and Senators Bert Stedman (R-Sitka), Shelley Hughes (R-Palmer), and Donny Olson (D-Golovin).

The bipartisan, bicameral working group was established to make policy recommendations on future use of earnings from the permanent fund and expects to begin their work in short order.
